I've got no idea when it first began

Some said it's four hundred years since we've been down here in slaves

Some said it's from creation we have been trampled on History said it's true, a man practise what he preach

But I will not stick to that and live on - a next man idea, a n ext man idea (cause) Everyday you are one day older - who can stop that - which man can change that

So I will not mix up my brain with no wrong idea with no hearsa \boldsymbol{v}

What is to be, must be, I said puss and dog don't got the same luck

So I don't want to live in the past

I've got no idea when the first began
