Tonight is for you, every night belongs to you tonight. Confida nts worldwide.

You were so alive. Collapsed under vice. Collapsed under every thing.

Never see you around. Never see you around here. See you aroun d.

You were so fucking alive. Early morning advice calls and thos e late night hotel walls.

We'll all miss you. We know all of our friends steal secrets i n their sleep.

Sometimes we've almost lost our minds. Lost again. Please show me the way out of here.
