Tonight it's been a year We met each other here Here I am all alone As thoughts of you go on

Hear me cryin' out to you
You said, "Never, never would I leave"
Here's a tear from me to you
And maybe it will make you hear me

I loved you
You didn't feel the same
Though we're apart
You're in my heart
Give me one more chance to Make it real

In a dream you are here You smile and hold me near And in my heart I'll pretend That you are here again

Hear me cryin' out to you
You said, "Never, never would I leave"
Here's a tear from me to you
And maybe it will make you hear me

Give me one more chance to Make it real
