

(Un)Lost

The Maine

I'm not looking for anything in particular
But I'm far more desperate than you think
I wonder what it's like to be the Universe
Experiencing itself ironically

I need some space to run around
I'll always have the underground
I'll build my road despite the cost
I'm not looking to be found
No, no not at all

I'm unaware where I'm going
Or if I'm going anywhere at all
But I know I'll take the leap
If it is worth the fall
So as long as the blood keeps flowing
I'll set a sail and swim across
I'm not looking to be found
Just want to feel unlost

With my eyes closed this feels like home
I drift in my own head and all I really know is Whatever this is doesn't get easier
So take it slow, just take it slow

Between the silence and the sound
I'll never lose the underground
I'll build my road despite the cost
I'm not looking to be found
No, no not at all

I'm unaware where I'm going
Or if I'm going anywhere at all
But I know I'll take the leap
If it is worth the fall
So as long as the blood keeps flowing
I'll set a sail and swim across
I'm not looking to be found
No, not at all

The World disarms before a flash
And you are not allowed to be anybody else
Control what you can control and what you can't
And always remember how lucky you are to have yourself

I'm unaware where I'm going
Or if I'm going anywhere at all
But I know I'll take the leap
If it is worth the fall
So as long as the blood keeps flowing
I'll set a sail and swim across
Just want to feel unlost
