Night And Day

The city lights are dying, Two burning suns cruise west, Stomachs taught, With the smack of wine Left behind the streets of sweat, Bled a thousand times Living in the alleys of grime, Kids made of steel Who never give, Muscle and blood To stay alive An encounter on the highway, A woman in an injured machine Several numbers, One wave thought To steal some fun in a single shot, The screams lost in the distance No city tears were shed, The Boss-man sheriff So far away, As the car pulled off and The night turned day..... and CONTUSION... There's blood on the road, Car on the motorway Screaming machine, Passed by the Red Cross of Agony, Or victory or Ecstacy There's blood on the street, Man in the subway, Human remain, Passed by the Red Cross of Agony, Or victory or Ecstacy There's blood in the war, Passage of history, Only a memory Passed by the Red Cross of Agony, Or victory or Ecstacy There's blood in your brain, Clot travelling slowly, Held by a vice, Passed by the Red Cross of Agony, Or victory or Ecstacy There's blood in the sea, Float so smoothly, Never to blend Passed by the Red Cross of Agony, Or victory or Ecstacy In a reasonable way the blood gained transfusion But nothing could block, no nothing could close, These cells of confusion

The Skids
