

It Hurts Me So

The Spencer Davis Group

Sometimes I feel so worried
Sometimes I feel so sad
Thinking about my baby and the good times we had
You know it hurts me so, hurts me so,
And I never wanted to let you go

Sometimes I feel so worried
Sometimes I feel so blue
Thinking 'bout my baby and the things we used to do
You know it hurts me so, hurts me so,
And I never wanted to let you go

When you see me all alone you know
That you never wanted to let me go
But it's too late now
It doesn't matter how
I tried to get you back again

Sometimes I feel so worried
Sometimes I feel so blue
Thinking 'bout my baby and the things we used to do
You know it hurts me so, hurts me so,
And I never wanted to let you go
Oh!
Let you go, baby
I never wanted to let you go
