The Weirdness

The Stooges

I feel so estranged
Fear runs around my brain
I had to leave
I could not stand the heat

They look at me with scorn One more dead life was born Formed from the clay Of their unhappy ways

One word can just describe Modern life comes to mind This word alone Puts the ache in my bones

It's weirdness
My dear
The weirdness
Is here
Weirdness
Weirdness

My, all this atmosphere Chills my desire dear You're so attractive And I am a man

Like the guy in Psycho Voices tell me hello There's death and danger here For something is queer

One word can just describe Modern life comes to mind This word alone It's the ache in my bones

It's weirdness
My dear
The weirdness
Is here
Weirdness
Weirdness

The weirdness
The weirdness
The weirdness
The weirdness
The weirdness
