

Tears in the Rain

The Tiger Lillies

The whole thing is a question mark
As you walk in the rain
You feel the drugs and alcohol pumping in your veins
It's a question mark no reason why
When I think about it
I wan't to cry
The whole thing is a question mark
the whole thing is just pain
Alienation eats me
consuming my brain
The whole thing is a question mark
Tears in the rain
The whole thing is a question mark
FThe whole thing is a question mark do
I wonder why
The echos that come back
all of them are lies Corrupt and evil
leaves me feeling sad
Tears are falling down my face
I'm going mad
The whole thing is a question mark
As you walk in the rain
The whole thing is a question mark
The whole thing is just pain
Tears in the rain
Tears in the rain
Tears in the rain
Tears in the rain
Tears in the rain
Tears in the rain
Tears in the rain
