

Stella

The Tubes

I wake up screaming at the moon
But Stella doesn't hear
I howl so loud it shakes the room
But it's like she wasn't there

The dream is repeating endlessly
With always the same cast and scenery

Life goes on
With one more song

Tell Stella I'm sorry
And I promise I'll change my ways
You gotta tell it to Stella
I'll change today

I just could not help myself
I was driven by the fire
My only wrong I rode too long
On A Streetcar Named Desire

But nothing can change the things I did
I just can't explain what went through my head

Life goes by
With one more cry

Tell Stella I'm sorry
And I promise I'll change my ways
You gotta tell it to Stella
I'll change today
