The End Is Near

The Unseen

Let us not feel an ounce of remorse When the time comes and the brains Behind the muscle get what they fucking deserve!!!!!

News broadcasts ratings grow. War and scandal do you wanna know. How many people died today. Dealt with pain and suffering

Are you terrified For our lives It looks to be The end's in sight

Go and fight for evil and lies Everything you stand for I despise I'd rather live than die for something Something that will never end Force them to fight so we can be free Until the end Money and power is the reality Until the end It's two things the world leaders thrive for

Until the end And that's why this will never stop Until the end That's why this will never stop Until the end
