The Parting Glass

Thea Gilmore

Of all the money e'er I had I spent it in good company And all the harm that e'er I've done Alas it was to none but me And all I've done for want of wit To memory now I can't recall So fill to me the parting glass Good night and joy be to you all

If I had money enough to spend And leisure time to sit a while I'd gladly walk those roads again And trace the footsteps of a child But I have not the time to ask Why those will stand and those will fall So fill to me the parting glass Good night and joy be to you all

Of, all the comrades e'er I had They are sorry for my going away And all the sweethearts e'er I had They'd wish me one more day to stay But since it fell into my lot That I should rise and you should not I gently rise and softly call Good night and joy be to you all
