

Someone New

Thomas Anders

Sometimes you find you're waiting
Your heart is waiting for someone new
Lately you say you're lonely
You're looking only for someone new

Well, I could be that someone
I'd like to be that someone
I was spent my hold of loving you
I could be that someone
I'll always be that someone
And I'll be there for you
If you're ever blue

All you need is tender kisses
All you need is tenderness
Stand by me now
And I'll show you how
Strong my love can be for you
Love's so strong and always true

Some days the strangest feelings
The strangest feelings come over you
You know, only you know
How your heart yearns for someone new
