

Serpents

Those Poor Bastards

I won't be trampled 'neath nobody's footsteps
I won't be ground in the dirt like your dog
I am devoted to all that is evil
I will betray everything I was taught

Let us be, let us be,
Let us be serpents
Among the beasts we'll reign

Everyone's saying that the end is coming
But I've got news for you, it's already here
You must have missed it while you were consuming,
Stacking and storing that shit you don't need

Let us be, let us be,
Let us be serpents
Among the beasts we'll reign
With no mercy, no justice,
Just like you always dreamed of

Give up your Gods and your blind thoughtless comforts
Cower and whimper under the snakes
There will be nowhere to be safe and dry,
For all of your bodies we're now inside

Let us be, let us be,
Let us be serpents
Among the beasts we'll reign
With no mercy, no justice,
Just like you always dreamed of
