

(Hey yeah yeah ooouuuoooooh)
Just get up and run!

Just give into this weight of mine,
you're tucking away all those things inside,
never remember the truth.
You'll fall and you'll know i'm right
and you're dead inside.
I'm taking away the purpose that means it most,
you can try to become everything you hide,
that you love and you fight for.

When you were lost and fading away,
I was holding the line.
So come alive now, see the day again.
And now there's hope in your eyes,
(and now there's hope in your eyes)
pull away from the demons you fight,
for now and for life .

Another step inside,
you're seeing nothing that gives you comfort,
another reason to hate this place.
What would you say to me?

If you keep in mind,
we lose fear and open our eyes.
to the only reason that we stay awake.

When you were lost and fading away,
I was holding the line.
So come alive now, see the day again.
And now there's hope in your eyes,
(and now there's hope in your eyes)
pull away from the demons you fight,
for now and for life .

You were lost and fading away,
I was holding the line.
So come alive now, see the day again.
And now there's hope in your eyes,
(and now there's hope in your eyes)
pull away from the demons you fight,
for now and for life
