Road Of Hell And Sweetness

Tom Helsen

There's no surveillance and no one left to score Said the man to the lady, are you willing to walk that road Road of hell and sweetness, we just don't look back at all Say, you might as well be someone

Let's see who goes down first from above
It's the mississipi-clown, he's heading straight for your Town, for nothing cause he won't bring you sweetness,
We just don't look back at all
He won't bring you sweetness we just don't look back at all

```
Say you might as well be someone
```

The last man at the office's been quite restless, He's been longing for a moment alone with you