

Scream Out Loud

Trail of Tears

Listen up here is the story about
Me, seducing your mind.
Let me have you, let me please you,
Let me bring to the deepest of desires,
Until you scream out loud.

Bring it on, I'm your own temptress,
Use me and take me high.
The the room starts to spin around
You, when you see that I am no delight,
And you will scream out loud.

The hour of truth is upon us, the
Sound of the clock ticking fast,
There is no more mercy for man.
Will I salvage my passion this time,
Or will I suffer for the remains,
For all that was left behind,
This time it's for real.

I can hear you screaming out in pain.
I can hear you crying out my name.
You will scream out so loud,
You will scream out in pain.
