

To the Ground

Unearth

To the ground
Set it all ablaze
This distancing within our midst
A hungered conquest to devour - an obsession - your obsession
The cost is All
We circumvent this power that was so slowly bled from us
Such arrogance and failure
These crimes now lead to your numbered days
Bulldoze their pedestals
Ignite their fortress
To the ground we begin again
Out drawn, Out numbered
To the Ground we begin again
Bulldoze their pedestals
Ignite their fortress
To the ground without hesitation
Bulldoze their pedestals
Ignite their fortress
To the ground we begin again
To the ground
No question
