

Shady People

Us3

Before I go there are a few people I would like to talk to you about

Sneaky people

They will creep around you peekin' into your soul tryin' to look for a hole to drown you

They are always searchin' for nothin'

If you were to become one of these people you would probably find yourself being hit in the head by someone who's had enough Backstabbers

These are people who were at one time or another people you trusted and now they are gone

There are some people who will always take the lowest road no matter where it crosses

They will screw you time and time again

Taking from you your dignity trust and your friends

You can take your chances slim but I would not dance with him

(chorus)

Shady backstabbing sneaky people always tryin' to pull you in their schemes

Could be money or time

What's yours is what's mine

They can never let you be

There are traits of these in all of us

But then there are those who should get their P.H.D.

Shady people

The pickpockets, the conman

The person you least suspect that they warned you about

They usually have the look of being up all night

They are fast talking and smooth winding

And they will bleed you of everything you've got

They also have the ability to lie straight to your face repeatedly, over and over again

Just when you thought it was too good to be true it might have been too late for you

Ten will get you twenty, red will get you double, black will get you lots of trouble

He had you tuned in since you came in, knowing that you would soon fall in

You are not to trust the story or the deal, just because this person is not real
