Power Dive

Voices of Destiny

I'm losing ground
No end in sight

Sympathetic angels pass me by
Falling back into reality again
Your promises used to keep me flying blind so high
Cound the seconds until I hit the ground

They told me that it would be better now But nothing has changed Upon my soul, this should be better now But it's all in vain

Can't trust my world
I'm losing ground
Full speed ahead
No end in

I challenge you for a race to hell Confess the recklessness within My motivation, a clear objective The first to die will be honored for life

Can't trust my world I'm losing ground Full speed ahead No end in sight

Can't trust my world
I'm losing ground
For hope has died
In my power dive
