

She Takes Me (Into The Morning Light)

Voyager

She takes me into the morning sky
Until I cross the line
Into the morning light

Hear now
And follow me into the storm
Take me
Right into the unknown

Oh I
Down at the riverside I
Will show you what I'm torn by
So won't you take my hand

See now
Or have your eyes been full of sand?

Hear now
And I will take you as I am

Oh I
Down at the riverside I
Will show you what I'm torn by
So won't you take my hand

She takes me
To places I can heal

She brings me
A landscape so surreal

She shows me
The rivers I can know
To rivers that will flow
Into the dream

She takes me into the morning sky
Until I cross the line
Into the morning light
