

Safe from Harm

Will Young

I could run away
Right out of my life
You could choose to live
Under purple skies
There's a power in you

Coz I can't find a way
Of feeling safe
And so I'm running away
And I don't understand
It's in your hands
And so I'm running away
I'm running away

Your being cruel
Always hurting me
There's blood on your hands
That you can't see
And you got too many scars

Coz I can't find
Of feeling safe
And so I'm running away
And I don't understand
And it's in your hands
And so I'm running away
And I can't find of feeling safe
And so I'm running away
And I don't understand
And it's in your hands
And so I'm running away
I'm running away
I'm running away

Coz I can't find a way
Can't find a way
I can't find a way
Coz I can't find a way
I can't find a way
I can't find a way (to keep me safe from harm)
Coz I can't find a way
Can't find a way
I can't find a way (to keep me safe from harm)
Coz I can't find a way
Can't find a way
I can't find a way (to keep me safe)

I could run away
