

Find Me To Forgive

William Fitzsimmons

You were the only thing I ever loved
Taken for granted you couldn't stand it, anymore
You were my lover for nearly 8 years
But I am my father and I found another
The last 16 months have been nothing but hell
I thought about jumping, but that would be something
In the short time that I learned how to fly
Would you forgive me, or bring flowers to me, by the grave

Will you look the same when I meet you up there
Remember my name, please
Will you look the same when I meet you up there
Remember my name, find me to forgive

I haven't seen you for over a year
I heard you were married, the baby you carried isn't mine
I don't suppose that you'll still have my name
You'll have another if you're not my lover, anymore

Will you look the same when I meet you up there
Remember my name, please
Will you look the same when I meet you up there
Remember my name, find me to forgive (x's 4)
