

Last man standing

Winterborn

Don't stand on my way or I'll seal your destiny
To your coffin I hammer the nails
Six feet under is where you belong

Rage is all I can feel now, I'm so full of anger
My presence will take you to your grave
So say your final prayer

Who's first to fall?
The last man standing tall
My nerves made of steel
And so I roll the wheel

Last man standing
Last man standing

Hate is guiding my life, and vengeance is calling
My blood starts to boil, some heads are gonna roll
I'm a hellrider, bringer of tears and pain

Who's first to fall?
The last man standing tall
My nerves made of steel
And so I roll the wheel

Last man standing
Last man standing
