

When It's All Over

Yendri

On the mountain of descision
I stare at the clouds
The blue between seems so dark and I cry out

In the sea of life
I feel the depth under me It's down in the abyss where I will be

When it's all over
everything is full of peace When death has come there's nothing you would miss

When it all begins
it starts with pain
Then you experience
It will remain
