

Positive Outlook

Youth of Today

Through the clouds I see the light
My conscience tells me
What's wrong and right
Morals and goals deep inside
A bunch of feelings I can't hide,
But that's me
It's the way I live
My outlook on life is positive!
So what should I hide
Or try to conceal
All of these feelings
That I feel
Like to sit and talk about them
I want to stand and shout them!!
