

No Sleep To Dream

Zella Day

On a bird on a plane, now it's easier
Minimize fantasize of a heart that works

Girls and boys, they enjoy
In a love that destroys
Stack them in, let them win
Its what they are yearning for

She's a lady in waiting for a ghost man to come
Didn't show, now she knows
That all good people don't get love they deserve

All through the night
All through the night
All through the night
Don't need sleep to dream

All through the night
All through the night
All through the night
Don't need sleep to dream
Don't need sleep to dream

Timing counts just for now until it all runs dry
Stepping to dance for two its how your body moves

Eyes that stare, lips that share
All the words that care
We don't sleep we need dreams
That all good people can get love they deserve

All through the night
All through the night
All through the night
Don't need sleep to dream

All through the night
All through the night
All through the night
Don't need sleep to dream
Don't need sleep to dream
Don't need sleep to dream
Don't need sleep to dream

She's a lady in waiting for a ghost man to come
Don't exist thought they did where do we learn this from?

Yeah, it's what love deserves hanging up on a word
It's a thread that's exact and everyone's trying to break it

All through the night
All through the night
All through the night
Don't need sleep to dream

All through the night
All through the night

All through the night
