

You Meet People Twice

Zeromancer

With your make up still on
You walk away
Oh, beautiful is the bond
But this party is over

You need to realise
You meet people twice
Now listen to my advice
Remember
You meet people twice

Show some love
Show some affection
Facing a mirror
Where half of you is gone

You need to realise
You meet people twice
Now listen to my advice
Remember
The bond is broken
The bond is broken

You need to realise
You meet people twice
Now listen to my advice
Remember
The bond is broken
The bond is broken
You need to realise
The bond is broken
The bond is broken
You need to realise
The bond is broken
The bond is broken
